

Reach For The Stars Book Challenge

If you participated in the challenge and anticipate new books from your sponsorships, there will be a book pick up day at the school as soon as they arrive and orders are separated. Please anticipate an email and phone call from the school when the books are ready for pick up and thank you for helping us to put over $5,000 dollars worth of new books into the hands of our summer readers and classrooms!

Welcome Mrs. Christine Dinsdale

Looking forward to 2016-2017 it is with her own excitement mixed with ours that we share news of our new 8th grade homeroom, 7th/8th grade literature teacher, Mrs. Christine Dinsdale.

Mrs. Dinsdale comes to us with a great love for literature and a Masters Degree in English from the University of Massachusetts - Boston. Mrs. Dinsdale previously taught as an English professor at Quinsigamond Community College and is looking forward to sharing her joy of reading and writing with our Junior High students.

A Time for Goodbyes...

With love, affection, joy, sadness, tears and fond memories, it is time for us to say goodbye to Mrs. Chase as she prepares for a well- deserved retirement from her teaching duties here at Our Lady of the Angels School. Mrs. Chase has dedicated her time, talents and treasures to the ministry of Catholic education for the ultimate success of her students for many years and her presence will truly be missed within these walls.
